

Partnerships and networks

Version 10

Published 8/11/2022 by Stephanie Conte Last updated 3/13/2024 6:38 PM by Paula Echeveste Petrone

The Kingbridge Centre

Seneca and The Kingbridge Centre have created an innovation hub that enables entrepreneurs to build and scale businesses in the agriculture, food production and processing, energy and environmental sectors.

World Wildlife Fund (WWF)

WWF is a global, not-for-profit organization whose mission is to conserve nature and mitigate some of the most harmful threats to all lifeforms on Earth.

As part of the Seneca-WWF partnership, students can become a WWF Living Planet Leader. This self-guided certification allows students to build upon skills in sustainable practices.

Seneca has also partnered with WWF to promote the Living Planet @Campus and the Living Planet @Work platforms to cultivate leadership towards sustainability and engagement among campus communities.

SDG Accord

Seneca is a signatory of the Sustainable Development Goals \(SDG\) Accord, a worldwide partnership whose mission is to fight global injustice and advance the role of education in delivering the United Nations' SDGs. Through the accord, Seneca will work towards attaining the SDGs by 2030 and share sustainable best practices with other institutions.

Canadian Colleges for a Resilient Recovery

Seneca is a member of the Canadian Colleges for a Resilient Recovery, a group of colleges, institutions, polytechnics and Collège d'enseignement général et professionnel (CEGEP) from across Canada that are working together to educate a post-pandemic workforce which will support a new, climate-focused economic recovery.

Sustainable Development Solutions Network (SDSN) Canada

SDSN Canada is part of a global movement to build a network of universities, colleges, research centres and knowledge institutions to advance the implementation of the United Nations' Sustainable Development Goals. Its online communications platform, Mobilize, connects members from around the world. Members of the Seneca community can register to gain access to the platform.